Democratic Fruit.
We are not going to call it the "pie counter." It's genuine fruit from the Democratic garden in Washington. It's a nice plum from a tree that grows in the Treasury department and is known as the Senator Camden variety. Judge J. J. Greenleaf is the recipient. In plain language the popular young judge has, through the influence of his friend Senator Camden, been offered and accepted a good position doing special work along legal lines in the Treasury department at Washington. The Senator is evidently a force with the powers that be and is going to make himself felt. Kentuckians will hear from him. Judge Greenleaf will take the position about September 1. It is a position of trust and responsibility and carries with it a snug salary. The regret is it will take the judge and his family away from Richmond a large part if not all of his time. However, the best wishes of the entire community go with them.

Call on Luckey & Todd for garden seed and seed potatoes. Phone 62. 32-4t.

An Old Veteran Gone.

Ewald Schneider, aged 71 years, died at his home in Nicholasville Friday, the 21st ult., after a lingering illness caused by paralysis. He was born in the city of Lengenfeld, Saxony, Germany, and when ten years old began life as a sailor. When the Civil War began he came to America and enlisted in the Union army and was in the battles of Shiloh, Corinth, Murfreesboro, and at Chickamauga a cannon ball severed his left leg and a bullet wound in the right hip left him a cripple. At this battle he was taken prisoner by the Confederates, but was later exchanged. Mr. Schneider was a 32d degree Mason, having been a member of the Scottish Rite in Boston a number of years ago. He came to this city in the early '30's and had since resided here and notwithstanding his physical infirmities had supported his family and amassed quite an estate. He was a man highly respected by all who knew him. —Jessamine Journal.

Death of The President's Wife.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the President of the United States, died at the White House at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, 4th inst. Death came after a brave struggle of months against Bright's disease, with other complications.

The President was completely unnerfed by the shock and his grief was heart-rending. He bore up well, however, under the strain and devoted himself to his daughters.

The end came while Mrs. Wilson was unconscious. Her illness took a turn for the worst shortly before 1 o'clock and from that time on she gradually grew worse.

President Wilson was holding his wife's hands and their three daughters, Mrs. W. G. McAdoo, Mrs. Frances B. Sayre and Miss Margaret Wilson, were kneeling at the bedside when the end came. "Doctor, I am going; take care of Woodrow," were her last words.

Both Houses of Congress adjourned when Mrs. Wilson's death was announced and for a brief time the wheels of the Government stopped, while every one paid respect to the President's loss. Telegrams of sympathy were received from all parts of the country, requiring three operators to handle the messages.

Telegrams were sent to custodians of all Government buildings throughout the land ordering the stars and stripes to be displayed at half mast and to so remain until after the funeral and burial of Mrs. Wilson.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the East room of the White House, simply, in accordance with the wishes of Mrs. Wilson, characterizing the entire service. After the services the body was taken to Rome, Ga., the burial place of her parents. During the trip through the South the people paid respect by tolling church bells as the special train passed. Christ church, at Alexandria, Va., which George Washington attended, joined in this tribute. Outside of members of the family, only members of the Cabinet and their wives, the members of special committees from the Senate and House, a few intimate friends and the employees of the White House were present at the services. While the services were in progress, both Houses of Congress and all Government departments were closed and all flags were at half mast.

Hurry Up.

Only three more days left of the big R. C. H. Covington sale.

Dove Law.

The Dove Law expired Saturday, August 1st, and a number of local hunters are taking advantage of the open season, which lasts until Jan. 1st.

Special Term of Estill Court.

A special term of two weeks of the Estill circuit court began Monday last, Judge Stout presiding. Judge Riddell being disqualified in some of the cases to be tried.

Lower Freight Rates.

Bowling Green has just won her fight for lower freight rates. The city took the case before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Richmond, through her Commercial Club, has a similar complaint now pending before that body, with every prospect of victory.

"Jimmy" Tilford.

James W. Tilford, a widely known base ball player, who played in the Blue Grass League here several years as third baseman is seriously ill at his home in Louisville, with little hope of recovery. "Jimmy" was a great favorite with Richmond fans, not only as a ball player but socially.

Lexington Fall Fashion Week.

Fall Fashion Week so popular in Lexington last season has again been inaugurated for this season from September 25 to October 3. One hundred Lexington merchants and business men have already taken the matter up, appointed the various committees and have gone to work to make it "the biggest yet." 1t.

Stanford Fair.

Next week the K. of P. Fair will hold forth at Stanford—Wednesday, 19, and closing on the 21st. The purses the directors offer will bring together the best horses and other stock in the State—$1,000 in saddle horse stake, $500 harness purse, $75 prize in yearling ring, etc. The music will be a feature. Railroad rates one fare plus 25c round trip.

An Accident.

Last Wednesday night as Mr. D. J. Simmons was driving in a buggy on the farm of Mr. P. R. Broadus, his horse in some manner became entangled with the lines and upset the buggy. Mr. Simmons was thrown violently to the ground and considerably shaken and bruised. He has about recovered from the effects of the shock and is able to be up and about.

The $500 contest in speed class will be worth seeing at Stanford Fair.

Winchester Hotel Burns.

A fire which originated in an unknown manner in the engine room of the St. George Hotel, at Winchester, at an early hour Saturday morning, caused damage to the amount of about $5,000. The automobile house and a large touring car belonging to W. W. and C. B. George were destroyed, with two gas engines and two dynamos. A stable and several vehicles were burned. There was no insurance upon the destroyed property.

Open Local Office.

Chas. H. Chestnut, vice-president and general manager of the Yellow Pine Co., of Philadelphia, is here arranging for the opening of a branch office in this city, which will be in the Alexander building and will be ready for business at once. Miss Eva O. Nash will be in charge of the office, through which all Western business will be handled.

With Mr. Chestnut is G. E. Davidson, who was recently appointed assistant manager of the hewn tie and piling department of the Kirby Lumber Co., with headquarters at Silsbee. He was formerly manager of the Philadelphia office of the Long-Bell Lumber Co. Prior to going to that city Mr. Davidson was connected with the Kirby Lumber Co., at Beaumont. He is very well known here.

When Mr. Davidson arrived here a week ago from the East he tried to secure a location for the Yellow Pine Co. merely as a favor and his purpose was misconstrued. It was reported that he would have charge of the Beaumont branch for the Eastern concern.—Beaumont Daily Journal.

Miss Eva O. Nash, mentioned as having charge of the Beaumont office of this concern, is a Richmond girl, daughter of Mr. J. T. Nash. Until recently she has been connected with the home office, in Philadelphia.

The Madison County Sunday School Convention of Christian churches will meet at Speedwell August 25. All Sunday School workers are urged to be present.

Boat Excursion.

Arthur Brookshire, of Irvine, ran a gasoline boat and barge excursion from Irvine to Lock No. 11 Sunday last. Hattie M. was the boat. About 200 enjoyed the outing and a most enjoyable time was had.

Sneak-thief.

Last Thursday night, a little after nine o'clock, a burglar attempted to enter the house of Mr. William Marcum, on Hillside Avenue. The ladies of the house heard the attempt of the thief and upon giving the alarm, the sneak "vanished."

Bought A Farm.

Mr. T. L. Edwards, who has been employed at Lock No. 11, near College Hill, has bought a farm of 123 1-2 acres about half mile below the locks on the Madison side of the river. Price $14,000.00 and supposed to be well worth the money. He will get possession January 1, 1915.

Meeting of Division Boards.

Meetings of Division Boards to elect chairmen will take place at the following time and places:
Division 1, Union City, Monday, August 17, 10 a. m.; Division 2, Speedwell, 17th, 2 p. m.; Div. 3, Thos. McKeenan's, Tuesday, 18th inst., 10 a. m.; Div. 4, High Point school, Wednesday, 19, 2 p. m.; Div. 5, Newby, Friday, 20, 2 p. m.; Div. 6, Richmond, Saturday, 21st inst., 2 p. m. H. H. Brock.

Madison County Premiums

At Lexington Fair.

J. R. McKinney, with his Jack Twigg two-year-old mare, Mattie E. Mcwon the $50 Eldridge cup in the ring for the best stallion, mare or gelding 3 years old or under. He also won in the 2-year-old 5-gaited class with her, and was placed third in the 5-gaited class, best stallion, mare or gelding 2 years old. In the 5-gaited saddle ring, mare or gelding, H. C. McElwaine won first premium. Mrs. John Wagers took second premium on sweet pickled peaches. Mrs. Mary Fennell took first on tomato catsup and on pear preserves and second on peach preserves. Mrs. John R. Gibson took first on strawberry preserves. Other Madison county people took premiums, but we are unable to get a full and correct list.

A Narrow Escape.

Magistrate W. T. Chennault and Lawrence Roberts had a narrow escape from death Wednesday when a keg of powder near which they were standing exploded. Young Roberts was blowing in a pool on the farm of his father, Milton Roberts, on the Hemphreys pike, and Squire Chennault was watching the work. After one blast had been made more powder was poured from the keg into the same hole. Sparks from the first blast set fire to the fresh powder and the whole keg let loose. Roberts was badly burned and Squire Chennault less seriously.—Shelby Record.

The above, W. T. Chennault, is our "Tandy," brother of Judge John C. and Hon. D. M. Chennault, with a host of relatives and friends in Madison county, who had not heard of the incident, but who rejoice that it was not more serious.

Sorry To Know It.

Sunday's Lexington Herald gives the following item which we, together with every newspaper in the State, will be sorry to see:

"A suit was filed in the Clark county Circuit Court Saturday by Charles B. Nelson, half owner of the Winchester Democrat, against his partner, Steve K. Vaughn, and Vaughn, with a host of relatives and friends in Madison county, who had not heard of the incident, but who rejoice that it was not more serious.

"Birds in their little nests agree And 'tis a shameful sight When children of one family Fall out and chide and fight."

The Opera House.

Starting tomorrow night (Thursday) "The Million Dollar Mystery," an episode in 46 reels by Harold McGrath, author of the Kathlyn serial. This will be the first of the serial now being produced by the Thanhouser Film Corporation entitled "The Million Dollar Mystery" the most spectacular motion picture production ever brought out. The cast includes the following well known stars: Sidney Bradley, Frank Farrington, Alfred Norton, Lila Chester, James Cruse, Florence LaBade and Marguerite Snow. In connection with "The Million Dollar Mystery" (two reels every Thursday night) The Mutual Girl and a Keystone comedy will be shown, making a program of par excellence. Don't fail to start with the first one as it will prove the sensation of the picture world.

SAPHO FRIDAY NIGHT.

The World Film Corporation offers the only version authorized by Alfred Daudet from the novel by the same name "Sapho," by special permission of the author, in four reels with Cecile Guyon as Sapho and James Kraus as Jean. In addition to this will be shown two reels of the regular program. Show starts promptly at 7:30 and runs to 10 o'clock.

MARRIED

Miss May Day Logan, of Nicholasville, and Mr. Charles E. Soper, of Richmond, surprised their friends Tuesday by marrying at Williamstown. Miss Logan is the only child of Mr. Emma Logan. Logans are a very attractive young lady, while the bridegroom is the son of Ben P. Soper, of Richmond, and is a partner with his brother, Louis Soper, in the Richmond Lumber and Planing Mills Co. This is the second marriage of Mr. Soper, who is a nephew of O. T. Soper, of this city. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Soper left for a bridal trip, and upon their return will reside in Richmond.—Jessamine Journal.

County Judge James H. Evans Dead.

County Judge James H. Evans, of Winchester, long a prominent figure in local and State affairs, died Wednesday morning, August 5, at his home in that city, after an illness of cancer of the throat, from which he had been suffering acutely for several months. His death was not unexpected. Judge Evans was 70 years of age and was serving his fourth term as county judge of Clark. He served one term as Master Commissioner, was twice sheriff of the county and was a member of the Democratic State Committee from the 10th Congressional district when William Goebel was elected Governor. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Catherine Gay, two sons, Lee Evans, of the State Auditor's office, and Curtis, of Winchester.

Judge Evans was one of the most popular and best loved men in public life in the State. He was a cousin of the late Dr. G. W. Evans, of this city, a second cousin of our townsman, Mr. Leslie P. Evans, who attended the funeral and burial. His funeral cortege was probably the largest ever seen in the county of Clark.

The following Sir Knights attended the funeral of J. M. Rothwell at Lancaster Sunday afternoon: Chas. C. Cullen, R. R. Burman, Geo. D. Simmons, R. K. Burman, Jr., Dr. J. C. Morgan, Jas. B. Walker, R. C. H. Covington, Elmer Deatherage, J. A. Higgins, E. D. Ballard, W. T. Short, Z. T. Rice, Dr. R. C. Boggs and J. W. Hamilton.

The bride has frequently been the popular guest of Miss Mary Rice, daughter of Mayor Rice, of this city, and has many friends here. Mr. Soper is one of Richmond's most enterprising business men. We welcome Mrs. Soper and extend to them both our best wishes.

One of the most happy events of the season took place at the beautiful home of Mr. Samuel Luckey, "Overlook Farm," at 9 o'clock on last Wednesday morning, August 5th, when his daughter, Miss Margaret Frances, and Mr. Roy Harber Gatton, of Madisonville, were joined in happy marriage.

The attendants were Miss Alma Goff Luckey, sister of the bride, and Mr. Harry Smallwood Gatton, brother of the bridegroom. The bride party descended the stairs to the reception hall to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Overture, with Mrs. Overall at the piano and Master Wayne Gatton Overall on the violin.

Next came the father of the bride, the officiating clergyman. The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants, asparagus plumosa and Killarney roses.

The bride was attired in a gown of ivory crepe de chene, combined and draped with lace and chiffon. The veil was of delicate silk net, caught with lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaid wore a dress of white net and lace over pink satin and her bouquet was composed of Killarney roses, pinked peaches, and conventional black suits.

The guests were limited to a few friends of the contracting parties, those from a distance being Rev. Gatton and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Overall and son, of Elizabethtown; Miss Mae Alsop, of Sonoma; Mrs. Mark Elliott and son, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Cochran; Misses Lillian and Grace Cochran, of Lancaster, Ky.

The happy couple left for an extended trip in the East, and upon their return they will be at home to their friends in Madisonville, where Mr. Gatton is employed as superintendent of schools.

Thursday evening Aug. 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Turley, near this city, Mrs. Tommie Phelps Stapp and Mr. Eugene Parrish were made man and wife. Eld. C. K. Marshall was the officiating minister. Mrs. Stapp is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phelps, of the Summit, and sister of Mrs. G. B. Turley. Mrs. E. C. Wines and Miss Margaret Phelps all of this city, and Mrs. D. B. Kaux, of Georgetown and Edward and George of this city and John, of New York. Only relatives of the contracting parties were present. After the ceremony the happy couple drove by automobile to the home of Mr. Parrish on Red House Pike. Mr. Parrish is conducting the farm of the late R. P. McCord and is an industrious and good citizen. A bachelor party of five are now feeling the needs of a good life companion secured one of the best soil produces in the person of Mrs. Stapp.

BIRTHS.

Born to the wife of Nathan R. Jones, on the 3rd, a fine girl, named Mary Ruth.

To the wife of County Supt. of Instruction H. H. Brock, Saturday, August 8, a fine boy. He has been named Otto in compliment to his uncle, Mr. Otto Powers. A good name for a boy and named for a good man.

Church Notes

Why I Go To Church—Because it is a Day of Rest, a Day of Prayer, a Day of Reflection and a Day of Spiritual Communion, and I cannot fulfill these Needs unless I attend services inspired by Divine Worship.

Dr. Horton preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning. In the evening of W. C. T. U. held services. There were services at the Methodist and Catholic churches only, pastors of all other churches being out of town. Next Sunday morning Dr. Horton will preach missionary sermon, his subject being "The Old and New Macedonian Cry." In the evening service at 7:30 he will take up "The Conversion of the Philippian Jailor." A cordial invitation to all services and a special invitation to hear the missionary sermon in the morning.

Eld. C. K. Marshall will fill his appointment at Mt. Zion Sunday morning. At Christian Science Society rooms over Perry's drug store, Sunday morning subject will be "Soul." Everyone cordially invited. Testimonial meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30. Reading rooms open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 2 to 4 p. m.

Rev. Geo. O'Bryan, pastor of the Catholic church, this city, held services Tuesday morning of last week in Lancaster at the residence of Mr. N. Miller for the benefit of the Catholics of Garard county.

J. Mort Rothwell Killed At Crab Orchard.

Sunday's Courier-Journal in a special from Stanford gives the following account of a killing at Crab Orchard:

J. Mort Rothwell, a prominent lawyer, formerly of Lancaster, was shot and almost instantly killed at Crab Orchard, this county, ten miles from here, today (Saturday), by Dud Shelton, a young farmer of the Flat Lick section. Rothwell and G. W. Shelton, the boy's father, were engaged in a dispute over a fee-which Rothwell had charged Shelton and the fee was passed. Rothwell then stabbed Shelton and the youth came to his father's aid, drawing a gun and shooting Rothwell twice through the abdomen. Marshal Ramsey, of Crab Orchard, attempted to arrest young Shelton, when the boy turned the revolver on the officer, a bullet striking the latter's left leg below the knee and breaking both bones. Shelton then fled to the country and is being pursued by Sheriff J. G. Weatherford and a posse with bloodhounds.

Mr. Rothwell was well known in this city and was a member of Richmond Commandery Knights Templar. He was buried at Lancaster Sunday afternoon with Knights Templar honors, a dozen members of the order from here going down to take part in the burial services.

The following Sir Knights attended the funeral of J. M. Rothwell at Lancaster Sunday afternoon: Chas. C. Cullen, R. R. Burman, Geo. D. Simmons, R. K. Burman, Jr., Dr. J. C. Morgan, Jas. B. Walker, R. C. H. Covington, Elmer Deatherage, J. A. Higgins, E. D. Ballard, W. T. Short, Z. T. Rice, Dr. R. C. Boggs and J. W. Hamilton.

DEATHS

Miss Mary Rowlett, daughter of Jas. Rowlett, died at the home of her father, near Calcutt, on Monday, August 10th, aged 43 years. She had not been in good health for several years and was a victim of tuberculosis, which gradually sapped her vitality until the end. Her remains were laid to rest in Richmond Cemetery yesterday afternoon.

The twenty-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Embry, of Red House, died of pneumonia Sunday, the 9th inst.

Small Fire.

The fire department was called out to a small fire on Thursday morning by an alarm from B street, the house occupied by Margaret Jarman, colored, being ablaze. The fire was soon extinguished. The loss was about $150.

Card of Thanks.

Realizing that we cannot personally see all who rendered us so many kindnesses during the recent illness of Lozell DeJauratt, we desire to express in this card our most heartfelt gratitude for same. If the opportunity should ever come when the favor can be reciprocated, we will be glad to express a similar kindness. Gratefully, WIFE, PARENTS AND BROTHERS.

At Alhambra—Two Hours Of Pleasure—8 Reels.

Tonight, Wednesday, at the Alhambra, Helen Gardner in "The Princess of Baghdad," in 8 reels, a new and original Arabian Nights story. Written especially for Miss Gardner. Owing to its length—2 hours of intense enjoyment—the performance will begin this afternoon at 1:30 to 3:30; 5:30 to 7:30. Evening 7:30 to 9:30; show, 9 to 11 p. m. The management especially asks that all come early. Remember—8 reels and no extra charge; regular prices—5c and 10c.

RED HOUSE.

A glorious rain fell Sunday, which has revived all growing crops and put a glad song in the mouth of the farmer.

Much interest is being manifested in the revival meeting at the Baptist church.

Many of our citizens attended the Bluegrass Fair last week and report a good exhibition.

BRASSFIELD.

A Sunday-school convention will be held with the Speedwell Christian church Tuesday, August 25. Everyone is especially invited to attend and bring a big basket of dinner.

N. G. Todd, of this place, and Gip Witt, of Estill county, while out on a trading expedition last week, purchased a lot of lambs in the latter county.

James Combs, of this section, sold last week to a Laurel county party a fine pair of mules for $500.

Todd Bros. & Co. have shipped several cur-load of lambs from here during the past week and report prices good.

It has been reported that John Barlevorn made the little town of Panola a visit last Friday evening and created quite a little excitement—a little fighting, but nobody hurt very badly. John R. is a mighty bad fellow when he gets in the right mood.

C. B. Hendren and wife, of Beattyville, were down Sunday, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hendren.

J. H. Jackson, of Berea, the hustling salesman for the Lexington Dry Goods Company, boarded the train here Sunday night for Irvine and other points in Estill. He reports having spent a pleasant day at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. D. W. Black, with Mrs. Jackson and about twenty other kinsfolk. It was a complete and glad surprise to Mr. Black and wife. Just at the time when the guests were unloading the good things they had prepared for the occasion Bro. Black's neighbors claim they could hear him repeatedly exclaiming, — "Friends, its a sight in the world!"

KIRKSVILLE.

Mr. Minor Carmen, of Louisville, and Aubrey Minor, of New Albany, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cotton the past week.

Mr. John Stewart, wife and Miss Mary Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Tandy Centers, and Messrs. Gus Stewart and Edgar Brandenburg attended the Lexington Fair Thursday.

The revival at the Baptist church, being conducted by Rev. J. S. Dawes, with singing by Rev. Iron Sommers, closed Sunday with splendid results, and fifteen converts were immersed Sunday morning and received into the church at the closing service Sunday night.

A revival is in progress at Gillard, conducted by Rev. Peoples, of Lancaster.

Ernest Cobb, of Leroy, Ill., was the guests Mr. and Mrs. Mack Cotton the past week.

Mr. Sammy Long, of Clinton, Ill., has been visiting relatives here.

Misses Mae James and Allie Hendren, of Richmond, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Blakeham.

Miss Stella Hendren, of Lancaster, and Mr. Jesse Gully, of McCreary, were married in Lexington last Thursday.

Master Harry Brown, of Lancaster, spent a week with Master Carter Blakeham.

Miss Mary Dickerson, of Richmond, is the guest of Messrs. Rufus and Clay Blakeham.
